Br Carlito “Karl” M Gaspar CSsR

Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa
Commencement Speaker

“We really need to promote more concern and engagement in these particular areas because if we, Mindanaoans, won't do it, who will? This is our region. These are our people.”

Making great strides in various fields, Br Carlito “Karl” M Gaspar CSsR is a prolific writer, respected socio-anthropologist, theologian, interfaith scholar, missionary, artist, and peace advocate, from Davao City. With doctorate degrees in the studies of anthropology, sociology, and history, he teaches as a professor at Ateneo de Davao University and serves as the academic dean of St Alphonus Theological and Mission Institute.

Besides his teaching profession, Karl passionately pushes for development work in grassroot communities to realize his three major advocacy areas: championing the rights of Lumad people through solidarity work and immersions, conducting peace-building efforts in Mindanao through interfaith dialogues, and raising awareness on our ecological challenges through campaigns and training programs.

For nearly three decades, Karl has lived and worked with indigenous communities in Southern Mindanao, including the Mandaya in Davao Oriental, the Manobo in Cotabato and Bukidnon, the Subanen in Zamboanga del Sur, and the Dulangan Manobo in Sultan Kudarat, as a member of the Redemptorist Itinerant Mission Team.

His numerous engagements to promote the land rights of Lumads in particular have resulted in collaborations among church groups, non-government organizations, and educational institutions. He initiated solidarity work on behalf of the Lumad to alleviate their marginalized status, as well as in defense of their basic human rights and ancestral domains. Highlighting the need to bolster Mindanao studies and research, Karl encourages a shift of focus on the acknowledgement of indigenous knowledge, skills, and practices to trace our roots. Particularly in the academe, he engages in the disciplines of sociology, history, philosophy, literature, and theology to strengthen his advocacies. As Karl said, “The moment you are theoretically attuned to their plight and your life experience is very much connected to the reality of social problems, you cannot not respond.”

As a multi-talented and celebrated writer, Karl has been a recipient of prestigious awards for his remarkable works on spirituality and on indigenous cultures, including the Jaime Cardinal Sin Catholic Book Awards for Best Book in Ministry and Best Book in Spirituality in 2015. In 2012, he received the 31st National Book Award in Social Sciences for his book “Manobo Dreams in Arakan: A People’s Struggle to Keep Their Homeland” (University of Hawaii Press, 2011), a scholar-cum-activist’s account of Mindanao’s history and the struggle over the Lumad’s ancestral lands.

Aside from being a columnist for MindaNews in Sojourner’s Views and Panaw-Lantaw, he has contributed articles and essays on Mindanao to various publications in the Philippines and abroad. He was also bestowed the Gawad Dabawenyo Award by Sun Star Davao in recognition for his “true authority on life’s purpose and spirituality.” With new books published, namely, “A Hundred Years of Gratitude,” “O Susana! The Untold Stories of Martial Law in Davao,” and “Desperately Seeking God’s Saving Action: Yolanda Survivors’ Hope Beyond Heartbreaking Lamentations,” his works now range from history books on Davao and Mindanao to stories of Martial Law, and to climate change adaptation.

Before joining the Redemptorists, Karl worked for several development and pastoral offices and organizations, such as the National Secretariat of Social Action, Justice and Peace and was the executive secretary of the Mindanao-Sulu Pastoral Conference Secretariat. At the height of Martial Law, Karl, fighting for democracy, was captured and detained for 22 months by the regime’s military. During his detention, he was adopted by Amnesty International as a political prisoner and became more determined to stand up for peace and freedom.

Celebrating his 30th year as a Redemptorist brother in June 2017, Karl sees his being part of a religious congregation as an effort to bring in spirituality in his work as a human rights champion, academic, creative writer, and Filipino artist. His reflections and personal experiences underscore the holistic integration of his spirituality and mission. Karl, who is turning 70 on June 8, is deeply encouraged by the meaningful faith expressions of the Indigenous Peoples and believes that religious work with them should come from a deep and genuine appreciation of the integrity of their faith belief system. Hence, his prolific writings to this end have been described as an exceptional oeuvre to proclaiming the Gospel anew in challenging circumstances and social realities especially in the peripheries.

In recognition of his extensive and excellent work as an inspiring theologian, interfaith scholar, multi-awarded writer, and Mindanaoan artist in pursuit of justice, peace, and the integrity of creation; and for his outstanding contributions to development work and social sciences in the country, Xavier University - Ateneo de Cagayan is deeply honored to confer the Doctor in Humanities, honoris causa to Br Carlito “Karl” M Gaspar of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer.

Daughters of Charity of St Vincent de Paul

Archbishop Santiago TG Hayes SJ Award

For more than 150 years, the congregation of the Daughters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul has done outstanding and earnest work and service to the Church and our country, especially among God's poor in the peripheries of Mindanao. Guided by their motto, "The charity of Jesus Christ crucified urges us," the Daughters of Charity reach out to communities in need with respect, dynamism, and piety.

The DC Sisters call Mindanao their special home, an inspiring journey of heeding the call of Pope Francis's challenge "to go to the peripheries, not only geographically, but also the existential peripheries: the mystery of sin, of pain, of injustice, of ignorance and indifference to religion, of intellectual currents, and of all misery." The DC Sisters have been serving in Mindanao for over half a century. Those who were assigned here during the height of Martial Law in the 1970s saw the immense need for an apostolic intervention to help rekindle Mindanaoans' hopes and aspirations for their own promised land. The DC Sisters have worked quietly but effectively in conflict-stricken areas in Mindanao, and they have had profound impacts on the lives of the people they serve in Jolo, Tawi-Tawi, Basilan, Marawi, Zamboanga City, and Ipil, as well as in more stable areas like the cities of Cagayan de Oro and Davao.

The first DC community in Mindanao was in Valencia, Dumingag, Zamboanga del Sur where the Sisters ministered in pastoral, community-based health, and educational programs. Later, they transferred to Pagadian City, serving in the catechetical ministry. In the 1980s, they served in the Diocese of Tagum, Davao del Norte in the Social Action, Justice, and Peace apostolate, championing the causes of Indigenous Peoples. Martial Law years also toughened the DC Sisters, as they stayed in solidarity with the victims — left, right, and center in the political spectrum — working for relief and rehabilitation, legal assistance, and health care.

They have adapted to the signs of the times, shifting their focus to the welfare of families of land- and sea-based migrant workers. In Cagayan de Oro, they have strengthened the Migrant Workers Ministry, becoming a reliable group for spiritual counseling and legal assistance. In 2011, when Tropical Storm Sendong lashed its wrath across the City of Golden Friendship, the congregation sent four teams of DC Sisters to work with the displaced Kagay-anon families. In Sendong-ravaged Iligan City, the DC Sisters also attended to the basic and spiritual needs of families in evacuation and resettlement sites sponsored by their congregation. The DC Sisters have likewise been steadfast in promoting interreligious dialogues in Marawi and Ipil, among other areas. Now they are being invited to re-start their ministry in the Archdiocese of Davao.

You will find these generous, understanding, and agile DC Sisters in hospitals, orphanages, resettlement communities, schools, particularly those serving the poor and the marginalized in demanding circumstances. True to their core vocation of mercy and compassion, the Daughters of Charity remain committed to seeking and helping God's poor who are in need of His loving care and tenderness.

In recognition of their valor, spirit, and selflessness in championing the poor and the marginalized following the noble deeds of their founders, St Vincent de Paul and St Louise de Marillac, and for their generous service and dedication to the Church in Mindanao, especially to communities in the peripheries, Xavier University - Ateneo de Cagayan is honored to confer the Archbishop Santiago TG Hayes SJ Award to the Daughters of Charity.

Sr Ma Delia Coronel ICM

Fr Francisco Demetrio SJ Award

On July 19, 1991 in Beverly Hills, California, a lecture and autographing party was set to transpire at 7 in the evening. There stood a prominent Mindanaoan writer who was about to launch Books 1 to 7 of “Darangen: Maranao Epic,” which she translated from classic Maranao into English. Her name is Sr Ma Delia Coronel ICM.

Sister Delia, as dearly called by her family and friends, also authored “Stories and Legends from Filipino Folklore,” which had 12 editions between 1966 and 1976. Her creative and literary works were always in the service of the faith and of dialogue with religions and cultures. She spent many of her missionary years with our Muslim brothers and sisters in Mindanao, exemplifying an inspiring witness to the interreligious dialogue which Pope Francis describes simply as “being open to them, sharing their joys and sorrows” (Evangelii Gaudium 250).

Sr Delia was also deeply immersed in the academe. She obtained her BA in Journalism summa cum laude in 1949, MA in English meritissimus in 1950, and PhD in Literature benemeritus in 1959; all from the University of Santo Tomas. She had teaching stints at St Augustine’s School in Tagudin, Ilocos Sur and Christ the King College in San Fernando, La Union (where she graduated as high school valedictorian). From 1977 to 1989, she was a literature professor at Mindanao State University - Marawi. In 1990, she was named “Professor Emeritus” and also served as senior researcher at Mamitua Saber University Research Center of MSU-Marawi.

A pivotal event in 1978 changed Sr Delia’s life. She was kidnapped by Muslim separatist rebels aiming to publicize their cause. While in captivity, the good nun’s belief was strengthened that through her work on the Maranao epics, she could contribute to a meaningful dialogue and enlighten the Filipino nation on the cultures of Mindanao. This experience was the precursor of her life’s ultimate mission — using literature as a powerful instrument to promote peace-building and foster mutual understanding.

On September 6, 1991, at the University of Santo Tomas, 21 awards were given by the Manila Critics Circle, an elite group of writers and critics, varied in their sensibilities but united by their passion for books. Easily the most memorable part of the ceremony was the special award given to Sr Delia for then-four volumes of “Darangen,” a project she started in 1983. The Catholic nun travelled from Marawi City, where she did her research work at Mindanao State University, and dressed in malong, a traditional Muslim skirt, gratefully received the prize (“The Saga of the Book Awards” by Lito Zulueta, Manila Chronicle, September 22–27, 1991). Besides her numerous literary awards, she was recognized as the Most Distinguished Alumna by her alma mater Christ the King College - La Union in 1984 and UST’s Parangal Hakbong in 2000.

Sr Delia’s journey in the arts, however, goes beyond her collection of accolades. Her true genius lies in nurturing and bringing the vivid and rich cultural heritage of Mindanao to the world stage — her tremendous gift from and for God.

In recognition of her prolific and commendable contribution to the promotion and enrichment of Filipino culture and the arts, and for her genuine service in interfaith dialogue for the greater glory of God, Xavier University - Ateneo de Cagayan is honored to confer the Fr Francisco R Demetrio SJ Award to Sr Ma Delia Coronel of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

The Xavier University / Graduation Pledge

*On this graduation day
in the loving presence of our parents,
family and friends,
the alumni , faculty and administrators;
we do solemnly pledge to uphold the ideals rooted of our Alma Mater;
to live a life rooted in faith and service
to be men and women of competence, conscience and commitment guided by the maxim “veritas liberabit vos”
(the truth shall set you free)
as we strive to achieve greater effectiveness in our duties and profession
by using all knowledge and faculties;
to be constantly aware of our unique personal
gifts and talents;
and to use them for others, our community,
for Mindanao and the country, individually and in collaboration with other graduates of Xavier University – Ateneo de Cagayan
- all members of one family, the XU-Ateneo Alumni Association, working for God's greater glory.
This pledge we freely uphold on our honor
with the aid and grace of the Almighty.*

Xavier University Hymn

XAVIER, ALMA MATER

You have taught us to pay the price

To be men for God and Country,

To prepare for sacrifice.

May we learn to love, may we learn to serve,

And as Christ may we always give

Our hands in help, our hearts in love, and our lives that other men might live.

XAVIER, ALMA MATER

You have taught us to worship with pride

Our Savior's life and suffering

And the cross on which he died;

Not to fear the nails, not to heed the wounds,

But to love through the thorns and pain,

Keep our faith alive in the face of death,

That the world may see our Savior's reign.
